

2010 FRLMG Awards

Faculty Member	Department	College	FRLMG $ Funded	Funding Details	25-Word Application Summary
Denise Bookwalter	Art	Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance	$8,145		The artists' books by Julie Chen combine old and new technologies to create sculptural books on topics that include perception, math, geologic time and mapping.
Henry J. Carretta	Family Medicine and Rural Health	Medicine	$12,592		Obtain 2007-2008 hospital inpatient and emergency department discharge data for NC, SC, and CA and ZIP Code level demographic data to serve as population denominators. These data will serve as comparisons for our Florida Agency for Health Care Administration funded Partnership for Health Services Research.
Paul Fyfe	English	Arts and Sciences	$1,498		This project traces the under-studied relations of the aesthetics of Victorian poetry with the material forms in which it was published.
Davis Houck	School of Communication	Communication and Information	$14,000	Matching funds provided	The papers of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People provide invaluable primary sources on the Black Freedom Movement. Parts 20 and 21 of this massive collection provide documents on organized white resistance and the extent to which the NAACP's programmatic aims often conflicted with other civil rights organizations.
David Johnson & Elaine Treharne	English	Arts and Sciences	$9,680		Parker Library on the Web provides access to high-resolution images of this world-famous library's collection of 559 manuscripts plus bibliographical materials. It would be an indispensable teaching and research resource for several FSU constituencies, including HoTT, Art History, Modern Languages, Humanities, History, English, the School of Library and Information Sciences and Classics.
Victor Mesev	Geography	Social Sciences and Public Policy	$3,840		New super-high resolution satellite imagery can facilitate research in precision mapping of buildings, roads, and vegetation. And the analysis of density and congestion.
Matthew R. Shaftel	-	Music	$7,200	Matching funds provided	Grant will fund the acquisition of over 420 volumes, including rare first editions of 19th-Century treatises, from the library of world-renowned Yale musicologist, Professor Allen Forte.
Michael Shatruk	Chemistry and Biochemistry	Arts and Sciences	$3,940	Matching funds provided	A support for crystallographic databases is sought to extend university-wide annual licenses that have been acquired through the FRLMG program over the last two years.
Yanning Wang	Modern Languages and Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$9,573		This grant proposal is for the purchase of two rare books published in the nineteenth century and the "Century Journals Project" database.
Xiaojun Yang	Geography	Social Sciences and Public Policy	$1,600		I am applying for a FSU Library Materials Grant to purchase a provincial collection of the "China 2000 Township Population Data with GIS Maps" (Xinjiang) that can be essential to examine the socio-ecological dynamics in China.
Irene Zanini-Cordi & Christian Weber	Modern Languages and Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$5,475		This application requests funding for the purchase of foreign films to facilitate particular research projects and teaching needs of faculty in the Modern Languages.
Jimmy Yu	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$6,557	Additional funds provided in 2010 (was partially funded in 2009)	FSU's library collection is inadequate for supporting advance research of East Asian history, religions, and cultures. The Department of Religion and the Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics, therefore, propose to enhance the developing resources of FSU's East Asia Library in order to support faculty research and to fill the lacuna of basic research tools and primary source materials.

Some materials could be purchased at a lower price than proposed or were duplicate materials that were not acquired. Underspend was repurposed to buy books in Education, Arts, and Humanities.