

Spring 2012 FRLMG Awards

Faculty Member	Department	College	FRLMG $ Approved	25-Word Application Summary
Eric Coleman	Political Science	Social Sciences and Public Policy	$4,500.00	Latin American Crime and Democracy: I am requesting $6500 to establish a Data Repository for the Latin American Public Opinion Project dataset, the most comprehensive survey of democratic values and behaviors throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.
Ronald Doel & Kristine Harper	History	Arts and Sciences	$8,000.00	Legal Secrets: Science, Technology & the Cold War: Research on Cold War history of science and technology requires access to critical declassified documents. Two important new databases will significantly augment current FSU holdings.
Will Hanley	History	Arts and Sciences	$1,000.00	Egyptian Gazette, 1910-1911: Request to purchase microfilm of Egyptian Gazette for 1910 and 1911, updating our unique collection, purchased in 2009, with years most recently out of copyright.
Mary McCormick		Law	$12,487.20	Taxation and Economic Reform in America (HeinOnline database): The database contains legislative histories and other documents related to taxation, economic reform, stimulus plans, and bankruptcy. Coverage is from 1781-the present.
Allen Romano	Classics	Arts and Sciences	$1,443.20	The Oxyrhynchus Papyri: a collection of ancient texts (in Greek, Latin, Coptic, and Arabic) from the most important cache of papyrological documents for the study of ancient Greek Literature. Strozier has incomplete holdings in this series.
Mark Souva	Political Science	Social Sciences and Public Policy	$501.00	Access to 'The Military Balance': I am requesting $501 to obtain The Military Balance for the years 1961-1997. This publication lists weapons systems for all countries. I am using this source to create a measure of military power.
Elaine Treharne	English	Arts and Sciences	$16,665.00	The Sensual Book: St Albans Psalter: a deluxe, bilingual English medieval manuscript, made (extraordinarily) for a woman and critical for my major research project, The Sensual Book .
Kimberly VanWeelden		Music	$1,323.98	Geriatric Song Literature: This grant will fund the acquisition of songbooks from four publishers, which will create a compilation of popular song repertoire from 1890-1970 to use with geriatric clients in music therapy settings.
Jimmy Yu	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$8,148.00	Chinese Buddhism: History and Primary Texts. Requesting funds to purchase primary resource materials and core history books on Chinese Buddhism for my research, other faculty and graduate students' research within the department. This acquisition will greatly enhance the library's collection in these areas.
