

Fall 2011 FRLMG Awards
Faculty Member	Department	College	FRLMG $ Funded	Funding Details	25-Word Application Summary
Denise Bookwalter	Art	Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance	$2,750.00		Artists' Books and the Use of the Laser Cutter: Small Craft Advisory Press, FSU's book arts press, combines traditional and non-traditional printing processes in its bookmaking. This grant funds the acquisition of books from other presses that use a laser cutter in their printing process.
Adam Gaiser	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$1,700.00		Van Ess - Theologie und Gesellschaft: This application is to purchase the six volume set of Josef Ess' Theologie Und Gesellschaft Im 2. Und 3. Jahrhundert Hidschra - a classic of early Islamic theology.
Matthew Goff	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$2,600.00		Resources on Aramaic Language and Literature: My next book project, which is under contract, is on a text entitled the Book of Giants, which is one of the Dead Sea Scrolls. This text is in Aramaic. To support this research I ask that the library improve its holdings in grammatical and philological aids in Aramaic and books on ancient literature in Aramaic.
Steven High	Ringling Museum of Art	Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance	$10,000.00	Ringling will make materials available to FSU main campus	Art of Our Time: James Turrell at the Ringling Museum: Library materials to support research for exhibitions, programs and publications based on the new James Turrell Skyspace at The John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art.
Lynn Jones	Art History	Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance	$2,300.00		Joshua Roll Facsimile: I am requesting funds to purchase a facsimile of a tenth-century Byzantine illuminated manuscript in order to further support my research on Cappadocian fresco programs.
David Levenson	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$3,455.30		Materials for Research on Flavius Josephus: Monographs, collections of essays, and commentaries pertaining to the first-century Jewish historian Flavius Josephus.
John Mann	Art	Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance	$1,087.42		The Contemporary Photobook: This grant will fund the acquisition of premier examples of contemporary photobooks, building on research interests in the overlap of Photography, Printmaking and Design.
Michael Shatruk	Chemistry and Biochemistry	Arts and Sciences	$1,965.00	Matching funds provided	Crystallographic Databases for Research and Teaching: A support for crystallographic databases is sought to extend university-wide annual licenses that have been acquired through the FRLMG program over the last three years.
Valisa Silvia	Modern Languages and Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$10,000.00		Progetto Sonzogno: My second book project focuses on the cultural history of Italian publisher Sonzogno (founded in the early 1800s and still going). I propose to acquire a sample (about 100 books-libretti) of their production between 1861 and 1943 to situate FSU as one of the main US research resources on this major collection.
Benjamin Sung		Music	$2,500.00		Violin Repertoire Collection: The attached spreadsheet is a compilation of materials drawn from the violin syllabus lists published by the American String Teachers Association and the Royal Conservatory of Music (Canada) which we do not have in the FSU library collection.
Yanning Wang	Modern Languages and Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$7,500.00	for 3 years prepaid; library may absorb cost in 4th year, but usage driven	Siku Quanshu Online: This grant proposal is for the purchase of the online version of Siku Quanshu (Complete Library of Four Treasures).
