

Name	Department	College	Amount Funded	Matching Funds	Title of Proposal	Summary
Cocquemas	Finance	Business	$23,000.00	$2,000	Markit Securities Lending Data	Markit is the quasi monopolistic provider of data on securities landing and short selling. It is crucial for many topics in finance and other fields. Don Autore and Irena Hutton in Finance Dept also use it.
Cunha	Political Science	Social Sciences and Public Policy	$13,650.00		Historical IvyDB US Options Database	Request for a one-year subscription of the OptionMetrics IvyDB US database of historical option prices to support research on the responses of financial markets to elections in developing countries.
Fedyukovich	Computer Science	Arts and Sciences	$2,351.00		Books for teaching automated reasoning of software	The research of the PI aims at making various stages of software engineering automated, thus helping designers, developers, and quality engineers organize their work better. The PI teaches the CIS 5930 (Computer Aided Verification) course this semester and plans to teach it every other semester. Next spring, the PI will teach the CEN 4020 (Software Engineering) course. The requested materials will help for preparations.
Goff	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$706.00		A Key Latin Resource for a Commentary on the book of Ben Sira	I request that the library purchase a critical edition of the Latin text of the apocryphal book of Ben Sira. This purchase will assist me in the production of a commentary I'm writing on this book, a long-term research project.
Gonzalez	Modern Languages & Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$1,893.00		Constructed languages	I request sources on the topic of constructed languages, needed for my book in 'Inventing languages: A practical introduction' in contract with CUP.
Hazard	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$1,217.21		Joseph Smith Papers	This application requests the purchase of the print editions of the Joseph Smith Papers, a multi-volume editorial project based in Salt Lake. These volumes, which represent the most complete critical editions of early Mormon documents, are crucial for my research on antebellum Mormon cultural history.
McTighe	Religion	Arts and Sciences	$1,964.95		Making Abolition: The Memorial John Horace Bell Archive	Making Abolition will grow FSU's rare book collections on freedom, confinement, and abolition. This grant is seed money for ongoing collection-development.
Mewhinney	Modern Languages & Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$10,000.00		Essential Anthologies of Modern Japanese Literature	This proposal requests funds to purchase five anthologies that collect the representative works of modern Japanese writers and literary criticism.

Peres	Anthropology	Arts and Sciences	$4,297.04		Foodways Research Collection	Build a Foodways research collection to enhance resources on food history and prehistory, food, culture and identity; Southern, Indigenous, and European foodways in Colonial contexts.
Quinn		Music	$9,158.32		Twentieth and Twenty-First Century American Organ Music	A request for the acquisition of American organ music of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries.
Schlenoff	Modern Languages & Linguistics	Arts and Sciences	$3,070.00		Middle Eastern Women through their own lens	Through their own lenses, ten films by women directors will be used to create a new course on Middle Eastern Women through film and culture.
Shatrak	Chemistry and Biochemistry	Arts and Sciences	$2,100.00		Alloy Phase Diagram Database for Research and Education in Materials Science	The phase diagram database is crucial to groups who work on the synthesis and discovery functional materials. It will also be used to educate students in materials synthesis.
Upchuch	History	Arts and Sciences	$27,102.00	annual fee	ProQuest U.K. Parliamentary Papers: 18th Century Collection	This is a joint application from six members of the History Department. This database will allow for full-text searching of all existing records of the British Parliament for the eighteenth century. As explained in the attached narrative, this databases is essential for faculty research in British history, Atlantic World history, European history, and Early American history.